Albany Society for the Advancement of Philanthropy's Annual College Scholarship Contest

The Albany Society for the Advancement of Philanthropy (ASAP) has provided more than $6500 in college scholarships to local area high school seniors that will be attending local Albany area colleges and universities. Seniors who wish to apply for this scholarship must complete a 500 word essay on "What I do to encourage others," based on their achievements, commitments, and creativity.

The scholarship for 2016 will be one (1) award of $1000.

This year, the deadline for the essay is Tuesday, May 17th, 2016.

Students – please make sure to include your contact information, the school you currently attend, and the school that you plan to attend, along with your essay. Please send the completed essay via either email (preferred) to info@albanysociety.org or mail to ASAP, PO Box 2012, Albany, New York 12220 by Tuesday, May 17th, 2016.

The scholarship will be awarded the 1st Thursday in June.
